

RELIGION, SPACE AND DIVERSITY - NEGOTIATING THE RELIGIOUS IN THE PUBLIC SPHERE

International Colloquium, 1-2 June 2012

Max Planck Institute for the Study of Religious and Ethnic Diversity
Hermann-Föge-Weg 11 • 37073 Göttingen

7th International Colloquium on the Changing Religious Landscape in Europe

Friday, 1 June

9.00 Welcome, Introduction (by MPI and Working Group on Geography of Religion in the German Society for Geography, DGfG)

9.30 Common lecture: Hans KNIPPENBERG: Secularization and transformation of religion in Post-War Europe: general trends and geographical variety

10.45 - 12.45 Religious Changes in Western Europe 1 Islam in Europe

Johan ANDERSSON, Gill VALENTINE: Beyond the inter-faith agenda: religious/atheist divisions in urban Britain

Assia HARWAZINSKI: Change of religious geography in Germany: focus on Islam in the public sphere

Anne GOUJON, Ramon BAUER, Richard GISSER: Reconstruction of the forces shaping the religious composition of the population of Vienna from 1951 to 2011

Martina SCHALPBACH: Religious arguments in the public political discussion or: how is on the minaret debated like?

Francesca MONTEMAGGI: From doctrine to community – church-doing in pluralistic times

Andreas TUNGER-ZANETTI: Building lot or battlefield? How social actors constitute space in conflicts over mosque building project

13.00 Lunch break

14.15 Common lecture: Ceri PEACH: Islam and the art of mosque construction in western Europe

15.30 Religious Changes in Western Europe 2 Religious Changes in Eastern Europe

Daan BEEKERS: Reviving piety, reworking tradition: a comparison of young observant Muslims and Christians in the Netherlands

Elżbieta BILSKA-WODECKA: Religious diversity in the mass media in Poland

Sarah JAHN: Negotiate individual and corporative religious freedom. Religions in the German prison space

Emilia MODDELMOG-ANWEILER: Religious identity in the public sphere – the image and representations

Arnaud LISZKA, Thomas KÄCKENMEISTER, Marlen SCHRÖDER: What future for church buildings in a highly secularized state of eastern Germany?

Izabela SOŁJAN: The Muslim community in Poland after 1990

Eoin O'MAHONEY: Journey geographies: mapping the affective for theory

Sabine VON LÖWIS: Religion in Ukraine – spatial, historical and political peculiarities

Saturday, 2 June

9.00 Common lecture: Kenneth DEAN: The religious geography of Singapore: 1819-2012

10.15 Religious Buildings and Places Beyond Europe

Tomáš HAVLÍČEK: Secularization and church property: the case of Czechia

Deniz DURU: Negotiating claims of religions in multi-faith Burgaz, Turkey

Reinhard HENKEL: New Christian congregations in Mannheim and Heidelberg and their places of worship

Hikmet KOCAMANER: Islamic television broadcasting, secularism, and the public sphere in Turkey

David KOUSSENS, Frédéric DEJEAN: Evangelical places of worship in Quebec and France: new issues of secularism

Jürgen LAFRENTZ: Unity of the Brethren, Unitas Fratrum. The settlement congregations of the Brethren as independent settlements of concise typology

Martina HUPKOVÁ: Burial culture change

Thorsten WETTICH: Imago mundi: practices of localization and the sacred space

Stanley D. BRUNN: Religious music as narrative, identity, and community: Hymns sung on 10th anniversary of 9/11

13:00 Concluding remarks

13:15 Lunch break, End of Conference

14.15 - 16.15 Mitgliederversammlung des Arbeitskreises Religionsgeographie in der Deutschen Gesellschaft für Geographie (Business Meeting Working Group „Geography of Religion“ in the German Society for Geography, in German)

Limited number of participants -Registration required.

Contact

Thomas Schmitt · schmitt@mmg.mpg.de

Office Julia Müller · Tel.: +49 (551) 4956-229 · mueller@mmg.mpg.de

www.mmg.mpg.de