Popular support for diversity is often underestimated and, so far, insufficiently understood. The Diversity Assent (DivA) Project at the Max Planck Institute for the Study of Religious and Ethnic Diversity addresses this gap. On 28 June, Max-Planck researchers Eloisa Harris and Karen Schönwälder will discuss key results with Nan Zhang and Andreas Zick from Mannheim and Bielefeld Universities. Attend the discussion live in Göttingen, per live-stream or watch the video afterwards and learn about these questions:

How do we best capture diversity assent? What exactly do Germans assent to? Who are the supporters of different features of diversity? And, finally, what consequences do the project results have for future research and politics?

Participants: Nan Zhang (Mannheim University)
Andreas Zick (Bielefeld University)
Karen Schönwälder (MPI-MMG)
Eloisa Harris (MPI-MMG)
